		The Department of Justice runs and solicited a program entitled the “Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program FY 2012 Local Solicitation.” The overview of the program is described as: “The Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program (42 U.S.C. 3751(a)) is the primary provider of federal criminal justice funding to state and local jurisdictions. JAG funds support all components of the criminal justice system, from multijurisdictional drug and gang task forces to crime prevention and domestic violence programs, courts, corrections, treatment, and justice information sharing initiatives.” It also includes “Drug treatment and enforcement programs” as one of the purposes of the grant. [Department of Justice, accessed 9/19/12] See Appendix I An example of the program exists in Washington state. The Metro Drug Task Force, formed with a Byrne Grant, is a federally funded unit comprised of Tri-City area law enforcement agencies that target higher-level drug dealers in the region.
